The People's Bible History

Written by Right Hon. William Ewart Gladstone, Premier of Great Britain. Published by the British Bible Society. 10 vols. 10s. 6d.
The Bible is the foundation of our civilization. It is the source of our moral and religious principles. It is the book which has made us what we are. It is the book which has given us our identity as a people. It is the book which has inspired us to the noblest deeds of heroism and sacrifice. It is the book which has made us what we are. It is the book which has given us our identity as a people. It is the book which has inspired us to the noblest deeds of heroism and sacrifice.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The navy department has received a cablegram from Admiral Dewey. The text of it is not made public, but it is stated that it relates simply and solely to the question of supplies for the American Asiatic squadron.

Arrival of the First Detachment, at San Francisco, of the Men Who are to go to Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Companies
I, K and L of the First New York regiment arrived here and were met at the ferry landing by a reception committee composed of former residents of New York.
The soldiers were given a fine reception, and were breakfasted before taking the march to Camp Merritt, where they will go into camp pending the completion of arrangements for transportation to Honolulu. The New Yorkers are speedily equipped.

With Sick and Wounded.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., July 13.—The steamer City of Washington arrived at Old Point this morning from Santiago with sick and wounded soldiers.

The charter amendments voted upon at St. Louis were defeated by a vote of 9,701 for and 33,544 against.

The military attaché of the French embassy at Washington speaks highly in praise of the American troops.

Class L. Williams, aged 82, for over sixty years a resident of Layette county, Ill., died at Vandalia Tuesday.

George Clem, a prosperous farmer,
aged 60, who resided near Vevy Park,
Ill., dropped dead Tuesday evening.

WE NOW HOLD SUBIC BAY.

The Raleigh Bombarded the Forts
on Grand Island Till a White Flag Went Up.

THE GARRISON OF 1,300 MEN CAPTURED.

A Story of Interference by the German Warship Irene—She Didn't Join the Americans—The Capture of Subic Bay Defeats Germany's Supposed Plans in the Islands.

MANILA, July 9, via Hong Kong.
July 13.—The insurgents, on July 9, reported that the German warship Irene, in Subic bay, refused to permit them to attack the Spaniards on Grande Island. Rear Admiral Dewey promptly dispatched the Raleigh and Concord to investigate the matter. On entering Subic bay the Raleigh opened fire on the forts, whereupon the Irene slipped her cable and steamed out the other channel.

The Spaniards Surrendered.

The result of the fire of the American warship was that the Spaniards, numbering over 500 men, surrendered everything.

On returning to Manila, the Irene explained that she interfered "in the cause of humanity," and offered to hand over to the Americans the refuges she had on board. Admiral Dewey, however, declined to accept them.

Urethane Came to Late.

Gov. Gen. Aguinaldo has issued a proclamation promising to grant autonomy to the islands and offering the insurgents inducements to join the Spanish forces. Gen. Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, in reply, said the overtures of the Spanish commander came too late.

Details of the Raleigh's Work in the Philippines—Germany's Plan's Ipeel.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A special copyright cable from Manila, dated July 10, to the New York Journal, says:
Admiral Dewey, early on July 10, dispatched the Raleigh and Concord to take Grande Island, in Subic bay, and capture the garrison.

Not Work by the Raleigh.

The cruisers shelled the principal points on the island, destroying the earthworks and other fortifications and laying the torpedo stations in ruins.

They then sent out a launch with a message demanding surrender.

There was no response, and the Raleigh finally sent a six-inch shell through the commander's house. The white flag was instantly run up on the ruins of the commander's house.

The Spanish Colonel Gave Up His Sword.
A landing party demanded absolute surrender, and the Spanish colonel, Rio, realizing his hopeless position, made submission and gave up his sword. The 1,300 men comprising the garrison were made prisoners and their rifles taken from them. Forty thousand rounds of ammunition and one Hotchkiss gun was also captured.

American Control of Subic Bay

This victory gives the Americans control of Subic bay. The Spanish were endeavoring to protect it with submarine mines, and to make it ready for occupation of the Spanish fleet supposed to be on its way from Spain.

Admiral Dewey's possession of Subic bay defeats Germany's supposed plans to interfere in the Philippines.

An Insurgent Capture.

The insurgents have captured the valuable merchant coast steamer named Philippines. The native crew killed the officer of the ship before the capture.

The insurgents were using the transport in an attack which they continued making on Grande Island before Admiral Dewey was called upon.

Dewey is Diplomatic.

Although the attitude of the Germans is still irritating, Admiral Dewey is managing them with great diplomacy. He does not expect any trouble with them.

The blockade will hereafter be more rigid, and the supply ships of the Americans and foreign fleets are allowed to enter.

The Esmeralda arriving from Hong Kong yesterday with passengers was stopped and ordered to sea.

The long expected refrigerating steamer Culpin, from Australia, with a cargo of fresh beef, arrival, and was welcomed enthusiastically by the sailors and soldiers.

partment has received a cablegram

is not made public, but it is stated

question of supplies for the American

AN ENORMOUS DIFFERENCE.

A Madrid Newspaper that Seems to Gauge
the Situation as Regards Peace Conditions.

MADRID, July 13.—The government continues its assurances to the effect that the ministers are not taking part in any peace negotiations which may be proceeding.

The Correspondence (Independent and semi-official), says: "There is an enormous difference between the concessions which Spain is willing to make and the demands of the Americans."

"Peace is impossible until a Spanish victory has lowered the pride of the Americans or another disaster forces
Spain to make more ample concessions."

Italianity Recognized.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The president has directed the promotion of Lieut-Colonels W. A. Worth, Twentieth infantry, and E. H. Liscum, Twenty-fourth infantry, to the grade of brigadier-general in recognition of their gallant and meritorious action in the operations about Santiago.

A Good Ride.

MONTREAL, July 13.—Messrs. Dubois and Carranza sailed on the Dominion line steamer Ottoman. With them went a petty officer and two sailors of the Canadian navy, captured on board beginning of the war. These are the men who accompanied Carranza on a schooner on his recent mysterious trip.

Statistical Extension of the Weather Service.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The most radical extension of the weather service yet made will be operated immediately by this government by the establishment of a complete system of weather stations on the Caribbean seaboard for the benefit of all nations whose interests lie in that region.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CONGRESS.
POWER—We are authorized to announce W. T. Fowler, of Christian County, as a candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

JOLLY—We are authorized to announce Hon. J. George W. Jolly, of Paducah, as a candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The cost of the war will be partly borne by the Philippine Islands. Arrangements are perfecting to collect the customs revenues of these islands as a war measure.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Hopkins County Fair will be held August 24, 25, 26 and 27. The catalogues are out and they are handsome. Get one and get ready for the Fair. See extended notice elsewhere.

The Spaniards are busy trying to strengthen their defenses on the Canaries and at home ports against the coming of Commodore Watson. They are getting scared up at home, but their strength will not be sufficient for their needs.

ALREADY, in the brief progress of our war with Spain, the sun does not long hide her face from United States possessions, come unchosen into our hands by force of mighty events. And if the fight continues the island outposts of this great republic will band the globe like a rainbow of liberty and hope whose hues are never dimmed.

THERE is general rejoicing over the news of the promotion of Col. Leonard Wood and Lieut. Col. Theo. Roosevelt, the heroic leaders of the First Regiment United States Volunteer Cavalry, popularly known as the "Rough Riders." Wood becomes a Brigadier General and Roosevelt a Colonel. These men have been conspicuously in the forefront of the battle and the honor is well deserved.

The Palace Hotel at Cincinnati is all right and up-to-date, even if it is a two dollar house and not fine enough to suit high rollers. We have been favored with a 4th of July dinner menu from that hotel, handsomely gotten up in the patriotic colors, which looks to contain most things on top of earth and many things from under the sea. That is the house that cared so well for the Kentucky press boys, their wives, sisters and sweethearts on their recent annual outing.

Our Naval Construction Board should see that we have the fastest cruisers and battleships in the world, armed with eight, ten, twelve and thirteen inch guns. Let the armament of each ship be greater than that of any vessel of her class in foreign navies. The present war demonstrates the need of speed in battleships as well as in cruisers. We have the best mechanics in the world and we must continue to have the best warships. No American or Englishman doubts that we are today the second naval power in fighting capacity. Every change in our navy should be toward the first place among nations.

The Latin nations fight their ships like they sail their trans-Atlantic liners. Note the shameful story of the La Bourgoigne—French sailors fighting helpless women and children in wild efforts to free themselves—one woman saved out of three hundred.

Almost Criminal.

Here is trade unionism gone to seed. Not even love of country and the cause of freedom seems able to overcome the sure desire of the trade unionist "not to work another minute."

We quote from Harper's Weekly: "The laws of the trades union hold, it seems, even in war-time, and to the detriment of the State. The newspapers record that on Saturday, June 25, in New York, the men engaged in chartering the electric plants on two ships chartered by the government stopped work at noon, according to union rules, notwithstanding that their refusal to go on with the work meant a delay of two days in starting the ships for Newport News."

Suppress Lawlessness.

The lawless element about Mayfield, which unfortunately prevails in no small numbers there and which has gotten so in the habit of "hanging niggers" that they regard it as a part of their proper pursuit of happiness, are denouncing Gov. Bradley for upholding the dignity of the Commonwealth by the use of the military arm of the law. According to the dispatches they have threatened to hang the "nigger" any way, in spite of soldiers and galling guns.

The Governor is right, of course, and of course is receiving the applause of all law abiding citizens in his endeavor to suppress mobs. If the negro is guilty of the crime charged a jury can apply the rope lawfully. But Judge Lynch must take a back seat while Gov. Bradley is in the chair.

The jury says the negro must hang, and hang he will—but legally. The Governor has taken the precaution to transport him to Louisville beyond the unreasonable wrath of the mob.

A War Congress.

A notable Congress adjourned last Friday July 8th amid notable scenes. Immediately upon adjournment of the House gave three cheers for President McKinley, then cheers for Admiral Dewey, Schley, Hobson, Sampson and General Joe Wheeler. "America" was sung by the members and the galleries. Every member was supplied with a small flag and all joined in singing "Star Spangled Banner." Then followed "Yankee Doodle" and "Dixie," the latter perhaps for the first time in the House, joined in by members from every section of the country.

All partisan, all sectional lines were broken down in this closing reunion of the representatives of a United Country. The work that was cut out for this Congress and this country has forced upon us a united Congress and a united people.

From the very beginning of actual war legislation, when Congress placed $50,000,000 in the hands of the President, without limitation, for national defense, party lines were swept away and both houses unanimously voted its confidence in the administration. The total appropriation footed up almost $900,000,000, and upwards of $350,000,000 of this was purely for war purposes.

Hawaii was annexed, our vast volunteer army was organized, our navy greatly expanded, our coast fortifications wonderfully strengthened, provisions were made for the construction of thirty-six new naval vessels of various classes, and a war revenue law enacted which is expected to produce $150,000,000.

The second session of the fifty-fifth congress was a war congress and its work was well and speedily done.

What It Does Not Show.

From the Minneapolis Tribune. It will be seen that the trade balance in our favor in respect to manufactured products has occurred since the Dingley law went into effect. This is another complete answer to the contention of "Tariff reformers," that high Tariffs tend to destroy our foreign trade. They aver that we, as a nation, cannot sell our goods abroad unless we purchase goods abroad; but as an actual fact it appears that with less foreign purchases we have sold bigger bills of manufactured goods to foreigners. The increase has been chiefly in agricultural implements, locomotives, cars, hardware, iron plates, leather and shoes, lubricating oils, paraffin, cotton goods, cotton and brass goods. The growth of exports has been shown especially in articles of iron and steel. In this line of manufactures our people excel, and the course of the market shows that the foreigners buy our goods because they need them and not merely because we reciprocate and buy something of them. When we were buying more of them, under the Wilson-Gorman Tariff, than we are buying now, they bought less of us. This may not prove that the Dingley Tariff, of itself, tends to increase our exports—but it certainly shows that it does not operate to decrease them.

The Spanish Target.

From the Cleveland Leader. Bob Evans says the Spaniards can't hit anything but the ocean. Let him wait. They are going to hit the ceiling pretty soon.

Henry, Frank and Will White are facing the serious charge of Kukuluxing at Bowling Green. They are charged with unmercifully flogging King Gordon, a tenant of Henry White.

KENTUCKY NEWS NOTES.

An attempt to break jail was foiled by Jailer Sutherland yesterday about noon. There are seven prisoners in custody, three of whom have been sentenced. They had cut one of the bars and would soon have escaped. The jailer thought they were all engaged in the attempt for liberty.—Mayfield Mirror.

Photographer Ebeling of this city has in his possession a box of matches that is a curiosity. The matches were secured by Mr. E. Garth, who says he bought them before the war. They are put up in a round wooden box, which contains 100 matches and sealed with a 1 cent revenue stamp. They retailed at 10 cents per box. The box has never been opened.—Elkton Progress.

W. B. Holland died at his home near Brevier on Wednesday night of last week, after suffering for years from injuries received in the late war. He leaves several motherless children, all of whom are quite young. The remains were buried the following day at Jacoe graveyard with funeral services conducted by Rev. Woodson, of the Baptist church, of which he was a member.—Central City Republican.

There is an exhibition at the postoffice here a curiosity in the way of green corn. A number of small ears of corn are growing on one shoot, where ordinarily there are but two ears. Each of the ears is about four inches in length, and the whole is crowded in silks at least ten inches in length and very thick. It is pronounced by all who have seen it to be a wonderful production, nothing similar to it ever having been seen in this country. The freak was grown by Mr. Daily Kelley.—Nelson Record.

William Buckman, of Santo Mingo, Mex., is in Newport to erect a monument over his mother's grave. Buckman left Newport ten years ago with 10 cents in his pocket. Friday he deposited $65,000 in a Cincinnati bank. He has made a fortune in trading in the West. Harry Buckman, Newport cigar manufacturer, is his brother.—Covington Post.

Joseph A. Bishop, living about three miles from Park's Ferry, has brought to this office a lump of fine cannon coal as any one ever saw that he dug up on his farm. He got out four or five bushels and it burned splendidly. He is confident that there is a good-sized vein there, for this is not the first time that coal has been found in and near this same spot. An old resident said he knew them to find coal on that farm fifty-odd years ago.—Carlisle Mercury.

Esq. B. F. Smith, one of the best men between the rivers, or in the State for that matter, was bitten by a large copperhead snake Wednesday morning. He reached in a corn pen to get out some corn when the snake bit him on the back of his hand. He applied his mouth to the wound at once and it is believed sucked all the poison out, as three hours afterward the place had begun to swell nor had he begun to feel any inconvenience from the bite. The snake was as large around as a tea-cup.—Tale of Two Cities.

Mr. John Hostetter called the attention of the Gazette to the fact that he had a fine milch cow to fall in milk and he thought some miscreant was milking her at night but close watching discovered the fact that a hog in the cow lot was the thief, and he had to separate the hog and cow. This sounds strange, but the writer had the same experience with a cow and a young sow last year. Cows and hogs should not be penned up together in a small lot.—Lexington Gazette.

Miss Ella Hardin, who resided in Happy Hollow, resolved a few months since that she needed a husband, and accordingly placed a notice in a matrimonial paper. She received a number of answers, but was more impressed with that of young Mr. Rattler, a Henderson farmer than the rest. A mutual correspondence followed, and on Sunday he came up and they were married. They left Monday for his home in Henderson county.—Hawesville Clarion.

Col. Edw. O. Leigh was short-changed yesterday by a newsboy on the I. C. road. He came from Owensboro to Paducah. At Princeton he bought a paper and gave the boy a $5 gold piece instead of a nickel. He noticed his mistake a few minutes later and informed the boy, but he declined to give up the money. Mr. Leigh reported the robbery to the railroad officials and will have the boy discharged.—Paducah News.

John Peters, who resides about two miles west of town, raised the first crop of tobacco ever grown in Bath county. Twenty years ago he put in fourteen acres on the farm now owned by Seth Botts and at that time none of the weed was raised except a little in gardens, used for smoking and chewing. Mr. Peters sold to Waller Sharp, the tobacco king of this county, the first crop he ever brought, and said he could have sold him stalks and all had he only insisted upon the sale.—Sharpshoot World.

Dr. Pleasant G. Reed, a prominent physician of Paducah, died last week of apoplexy. He leaves to mourn his loss a sister, wife and nine children, and his aged father who is over ninety years old.

Severe Suffering

Serious Case of Internal Ulcerated Piles Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—Able to Work for the First Time in Four Years.

"My husband was taken with severe internal ulcerated piles. He was once apparently cured but the old trouble came back as bad as ever. He became very weak. After a while he gave up all other medicines and began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine did him wonderful good. In about two months he was able to walk out in the sun. When he had taken seven bottles he was able to ride out every day and work a little and he had gained 40 pounds in weight. He is now about as well as ever and has been at work on his farm. Just fall he sowed his own wheat. This being the first work he had done for four years. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most wonderful medicine in the world."

Capt. Jack Phillip.

Nashville American.
Capt. Jack Phillip, of the battleship Texas, is a sturdy sailor who fights his ship for all that is in her, who fires his big 13-inch guns with a vengeance at the enemy, who is terrible in battle, but when the conflict is over, makes it his first duty to bare his brave head and with his men and officers grouped around him, solemnly thank Almighty God for his mercy.

In the fight at Santiago the Texas was in the thickest of the fray, her guns did deadly execution, and to her belongs honors equal to any ship in the fleet. Her commander, the gallant Jack Phillip, directed every move throughout the heat of the fight, but exhibited in the fury of battle a nobility and magnanimity of conduct which elicits our warmest praise. As the Infanta Maria Teresa and the Vizcaya lay upon the beach helpless, and as the gunners were aiming their shell which would have finished them forever, he gave the order "cease firing."

Later, as the Texas was pouring her great guns into the Almirante Oquendo and the latter was shaken by a mighty explosion, the crew of the Texas started to cheer. Capt. Phillip held up a warning hand: "Don't cheer, boys, when the poor devils are dying," he said.

When it was all over and Commodore Schley had received Cervera's surrender, he came alongside his old ship, the Texas, and called out cheerily to her Captain: "It was a nice fight, Jack, wasn't it?" The veterans of the Texas gave three hearty cheers and a tiger for their old commander and then the scene we refer to took place. A correspondent describes it as follows:

"Capt. Phillip called all hands to the quarterdeck, and then he thanked God for the almost bloodless victory. He wanted to make public acknowledgment of it," he said, "that I believe in God, the Father Almighty. I want all you officers and men to lift your hats and from your hearts offer thanks to the Almighty." All hats were off. There was a moment of silence. Then the over-voiced feelings of the ship's company relieved themselves in three hearty cheers for their beloved commander."

There is something touching in the action of this grim old sailor calling his men around him as the first act after victory to give devout thanks to the God who extends his infinite mercy to Spaniard, to Cuban, to American alike. It was like Lee, like Stonewall Jackson, like Marlborough before the battle of Blenheim when he passed the night in prayer and before day-break received the sacrament.

Capt. Jack Phillip, of the Texas, is an honor to the Christian nation he so nobly represents.

President McKinley.

From the Baltimore Herald.
While a few hypocritical newspapers are disposed to find fault with President McKinley for his conduct of the war, it is pleasing to note that these censures are rare exceptions, and that our chief magistrate is receiving from the people that praise and loyal support to which he is conspicuously entitled.

No occupant of the white house ever met a grave situation with more intelligence, more firmness or more patriotism than that which has been evinced by Mr. McKinley since the beginning of our trouble with Spain. The country owes him a lasting debt for not having been precipitated into a war when it was wholly unprepared, and for that fortunate delay which enabled us to place ourselves in a state of at least measureable readiness. Had it not been for his conservatism and his foresight, we would have begun hostilities two months earlier than we did, and it does not require much stretch of imagination to reveal what would have happened to us then.

Ax Jottings.

Wheat has been threshed and our energetic and thoroughgoing farmers are very well satisfied with their yields.
Rev. Barney Butler, a Methodist divine, preached a very interesting sermon at Cave Springs Church last Sunday, on the text, "Let mine heart be right." He said you might belong to several churches and be baptized by several modes of baptism, but if your heart was not right you would be lost.

Rev. Barney Butler commenced a meeting at Mr. Lucien P. Pool's barn last night, and a good meeting is anticipated.
Last Saturday was pay day at the factory. There was a large crowd around the factory all day waiting to receive their pay, and at 4 o'clock in the evening the money came and all were made happy. The factory has been running very regular for the last two weeks. There are about one hundred and fifty thousand slaves in the yard.

Mr. T. M. Walker and wife made a flying trip to the Ax vicinity last Sunday.
May luck and prosperity crown the BEE with success in the sincere wish of Mrs. Katherine Myer died very suddenly of heart failure last week. She was widely known in Lexington society and leaves a large circle of friends.

ABOUT THE LADRONES.

The Climate is Good, the Soil is Fertile and the People are Lazy.

The Ladrones or Mariana Islands, of which the American cruiser Charleston took possession on its way to Manila, have been practically united to the Philippines for over two centuries. Guam, the largest and southernmost island of the group, the residence of the Governor General and the one on which the American flag was planted, lies 1,200 miles almost directly east of Luzon, the chief island of the Philippine group. There are seventeen islands in the Ladrones group, having an area of 420 square miles. The population is 10,172. The island of Guam is in the direct path of steamers from Hawaii to Manila, so that the American fleet did not have to go out of its route in order to stop there. This fact indicates that Guam may possibly make a good point for an American coaling station, provided it has harbors that can be rendered satisfactory. The Ladrones are of volcanic formation extending 600 miles north from Guam.

Spanish Rule in the Ladrones.
The islands were first discovered by Magellan in 1565, on his voyage around the globe, and it was his sailors that gave to them the name of Ladrones, or islands of the thieves, because of the thieving propensities of the inhabitants. Since 1668, the date of the Spanish subjugation, the group has been officially known as the Mariana Islands, so named in honor of Maria Anna, of Austria, widow of King Philip IV. of Spain.

The climate of the Ladrones, though humid, is salubrious. The heat, being tempered by the trade winds, is milder than in the Philippines. The yearly mean temperature at Guam is about 81 degrees Fahrenheit. August and September are the warmest months, but the variations of temperature are not great. Among the useful vegetable products are areca and coconut palms, rice, maize, sugar, tobacco, cotton, indigo, bread fruit, bananas and castor beans. In consequence of the laziness of the native population agriculture is almost entirely neglected, despite the exceptional advantages offered by climate and soil.

Mixed Population of the Ladrones.
The present population consists of descendants of the original inhabitants, called by the Spanish Chamorros, Tagal settlers from the Philippines and of a mixed race formed by a union of Spaniards with Chamorros. On the island of Saypan, about 150 miles north of Guam, is a colony from the Carolines. With the exception of these settlers, who are active, the inhabitants are generally wanting in energy, of indifferent moral character and miserably poor. The native population at the time of the Spanish subjugation in 1668 was estimated at from 30,000 to 60,000. Warfare against Spain and epidemics have been responsible for the decrease in population.

The islanders once possessed a civilization of their own, which has been abandoned under Spanish rule, and the industries practiced by their forefathers are forgotten. Agaña, capital of the archipelago, is located on the northwest coast of Guam, and contains more than half the population of the islands. The port is accessible only to small boats. There is postal connection with Manila once a year. Many political prisoners have been banished to this region. The Spanish Government of the islands has been military, the garrison consisting of 300 natives recruited by conscription.

Spain's Other Islands.

There are two other groups of islands in the Pacific eastward from the Philippines, belonging to Spain. The Caroline Islands lie almost directly south of the Ladrones, and are only from six to eight degrees north of the equator. The Pelew or Palao Islands lie between the Carolines and the Philippines. The area of the Carolines and Palao Islands together is 560 square miles, and the population is 36,000. Neither the Caroline nor the Palao Islands lie so directly in the route from Hawaii to Manila as does the island of Guam, which probably explains why the American fleet going to aid Admiral Dewey did not stop and take possession of them on the way.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The miners of this and other places turned out in large numbers and took part in the funeral of the late S. E. Stevens last Saturday.

Thomas Longstaff, of the Co-operative Coal Company was selected as marshal last Saturday, to take charge of the funeral procession, and everything was done in order.

Help for the striking miners at Drakesboro and Taylors mines has been called for and the would-be benefactor of the miners should now see what trouble they have made by ordering the strike.

Judge Pratt was busily engaged last week drawing up a contract between the new operators of the Woodstock Coal Company and Drake & Williams. We suppose the mine will be reopened at once.

The experience of late Agator Smith, if the rumors are true, regarding a recent visit to Providence, was not a happy one. It is reported that after mingling with the miners of that place for some time and telling them of the great benefits derived from becoming members of the United Mine Workers' he had been partially successful, when, from some cause unknown to the writer, he was walking out of town, he was attacked by some unknown persons who administered to him a sound flogging. The net results of his visit was a head and the discharge of several miners who too closely associated themselves with him and his order.

The United Mine Workers' Journal contains some valuable advice to the managers of the Union in regard to sending out men of temperate habits and none others to organize new lodges. The advice is good, but this advice is not always heeded, as men who claim to be working for the good of the miners by soliciting them to unite themselves with the Order of United Mine Workers have wandered away from the teaching of their superior officers and have fallen by the wayside. Right here we venture the assertion that nine out of ten of the organizers sent out frequent saloons and in a great measure depend upon the influence of liquor to organize. So long as this condition of affairs exists, but few good men will allow their names to appear on the roster of the order.

Secretary Wood of District No. 19 of the United Mine Workers has certainly been deceived by the reports of his agitators out in the field when he intimates the organization is strong in Hopkins county. But if any permanent headway has been made here by the harmony destroyers, and there never will be. The Hopkins county miners, with but few exceptions, (and that exception is where the miner has listened to the wily tongue of the two-dollar-a-day men sent out) are better paid and better cared for than the thousands who advise them to follow false teachers. The miners will always find this BEE a true friend, labor regardless of what Secretary Wood says. Good wages, steady work and freedom of thought and action is what it advocates.

The United Mine Workers are very anxious to have the miners of the St. Bernard Company join the organization and the order sends some remarkable samples of organizers, lecturers, advisers or bull-dozers of various name and conditions, to teach the people of Earlinton, St. Charles and Mertons (as the right way (as seen by the order). One would-be teacher of righteousness (?) was a board-bill jumper, having cheated a poor widow out of two weeks' board. Another beat his merchant out of a bill of goods. Still another, an ex-convict, calls the honest and hard-working folks of the above named cities "slaves" because they propose to attend to their own affairs without the aid of the ex-convict and his associates. Still another teacher makes his headquarters in a saloon when within reach, and when well fortified within, neither Falstaff or Ananias can compare with him. What an insult to the good people who work for the St. Bernard Company! and they resent it.

They do not need the aid of a rattle. The churches, the free schools and free libraries are teachers good enough for them.

One individual, an officer in the order, tells it that certain operators have agreed to help the order force itself on the miners of Hopkins county.

These must be the operators that have agreed to pay the miner 40 cents for mine run coal after loading it on the railroad cars for 40 cents per ton.

Who is cheated in this case, the operator the miner, or the consumer? And this officer writes that he has a 600 members of the order in Western Kentucky and received in April $77.20; May, $15.40; June, $40.00.

One of these same the order must keep up the striking miners at Taylors and Drakesboro, and pay the numerous walking delegates who roam over the country, imposing on ignorance.

There are many honest and good men who are members of the order of United Mine Workers, but the honest teachers of righteousness (?) at two dollars per day are scarce.

Success to THE BEE. OLD FRIEND.

Uncle George Poole, the oldest resident of the Poole country, died last Saturday in his 82 year. His funeral took place Sunday and was largely attended. He was well known throughout Webster county.
Wood McNeese was seized with cramps while bathing in Licking river Sunday morning and drowned. Desperate efforts were made by his comrades to rescue him but were unavailing. He was twenty-one years of age.
Hallock Rice was shot three times and instantly killed at Oil Springs, Ky., on the 9th, by Reuben and Samuel Patrick. The trouble originated about a girl. Reuben was arrested, but Sam mounted a horse and fled. He is heavily armed and will offer resistance. The parties implicated are of the largest families in the country.

FOR EVERY FOOT

There is the Right Shoe. Your Shoe is here. We make a point of fitting people. Any house can sell shoes—once. We sell shoes over and over to the same people. Steady trade is the test of a Shoe Store. LOCAL NEWS.

The fruit tree agent has come and went. The "spring ode" poet has had his day. The one-horned circus struck its tent. But the war-joke fiend is here to stay.

Mrs. Edwin Phillips and daughter spent Tuesday in the county seat.

Miss Annie Moore, of Springfield, Tenn., is visiting Mrs. C. H. McGary.

Mrs. James Sullivan and children and Miss Sallie spent Tuesday afternoon in Nashville.

Mr. Jas. T. Ligon has removed to the Gap where he will be engaged in firing at the compressor.

T. C. Martin and family spent yesterday in our city. They were gladly welcomed by innumerable friends.

Miss Clarence Applegate, of Evansville, stopped over with Miss Nannie Stokes, last Tuesday night, while enroute to Hopkinsville.

The Hopkins County Fair catalogues are out. They are beautiful. Get one and prepare for the Fair. See extended notice in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Toombs, Mrs. W. B. Wise and daughter, Misses Annie and Nannie Ashby and Lizzie Huff are spending the week at Seebree Springs.

The little eighth-month old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Satterfield, of Nashville, was brought here for interment in the Earlington cemetery last Friday.

About one hundred and fifty members of the Baptist Sunday school of Seebree came up in a special coach attached to train No. 59 yesterday, for a picnic at Lake-Side Park.

Walter McGary, our well-known liverman, left yesterday morning on the 10.30 train for the Evansville sanitarium to undergo an operation for appendicitis, with which he has been confined closely for the past week or two.

Thos. P. Barnes, who was shot by an assassin about two months since, is slowly improving. The opening in his neck, where the ball was extracted extends all the way through into his throat, but this is gradually healing, and he is able to walk around his farm.

Rev. C. C. Hall is this week in Christian county assisting Rev. Rickard, of Crofton, in the conduct of a meeting near that place. For the reason the readers of THE BEE may not look this week for anything from this "town parson's" facile pen. But there'll come a time some day.

We regret to learn that Dan Roland, of the Neko county, who had the misfortune to get his leg broken about a week since, is not doing as well as his friends had hoped. He is threatened with fever and suffers intensely, although everything is being done to alleviate his suffering.

A Flax-ical Blessing.

Mr. Hamp Fox has added to his family a beautiful Arctic fountain, which will prove a great boon to the tired and thirsty during the heated term. He keeps a full stock of standard flavors and is prepared to dispense drinks that are as cold as a blackblader at a prayer-meeting. Those who are inclined to doubt this statement are invited to call on him and have their doubts removed by surrounding some of his Lapland decoctions.

Died.

Mrs. Mildred McDonald, the wife of Uncle Ray McDonald, of this city, died last Thursday, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Browning, after an illness of nine months. The deceased was fifty-seven years of age and leaves a husband and two daughters to mourn her death. She was born in Christian county, but had spent most of her life in Hopkinsville.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. I. H. Teel in the Christian church here and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground near Madisonville, on the 8th inst., accompanied by a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends, to whom we extend our warmest sympathies.

Dr. B. W. Smock, who is representing the State Board of Health in the smallpox cases reported from Laurel and Clay counties, says the outlook is better. Laurel is very grave in Clay. He is in conjunction with local boards, and is empowered to use any means to check the disease.

TRAGIC DEATH.

Enfield Stevens Killed Instantly by the Bursting of an Emery Wheel.

Last Thursday evening about 4 o'clock, a pall of gloom overshadowed the town, when the startling news spread over the town that Enfield Stevens had been instantly killed by the bursting of an emery wheel, while gumming a saw at his mill. A large crowd quickly collected and the details of the awful affair were soon learned as several men were present when it occurred.

It seems that he had just rigged up a new ten-inch emery wheel to gum a circular saw and had just gummed the saw when he told the fireman to increase the speed, which he did. Just as he was about to touch the saw to the emery, the high speed at which it was driven, overcame its cohesive strength and caused it to burst to pieces with a loud report. One of these pieces, about one-fourth of the wheel, struck Mr. Stevens, who was within a few feet of the wheel, squarely in the chest, and quickly as a spark from the smelter, the slender thread of life was snapped asunder.

Enfield Stevens was born July 9, 1862. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stevens, now deceased, and all his life has been a citizen of Hopkinsville. About ten years since he married Miss Sallie Steele, with whom he lived happily until his death. Two children were born unto them, but both were claimed by the grim reaper.

For many years, Mr. Stevens had been a zealous member of the Christian church, holding the office of deacon at the time of his death. For seven or eight years he had been a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, and was the presiding officer of that fraternity, in which he maintained a policy of $2,000. About five years since, at the organization of the Golden Cross at this place, he became a member of that order, in which he held a policy of $1,000. Last winter he became a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was an ardent member of the Mystic Tie. For some years past he had been in the lumber business in our city, and by his industry and honest dealing had built up a good trade.

The loss of such a man can not be estimated. He will be missed in the churches, lodges, in business, and in neighbor circles, as a friend and neighbor. He has gone to that rest which remains for the children of God.

There is more Calvary in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven that it is a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Hall, of Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from two drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: Dr. J. C. HALL, 210 CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His inscrutable wisdom to remove by death from our midst our beloved brother and Master Workman, S. E. Stevens, therefore, be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother Stevens this lodge has lost a zealous, efficient officer, the Order of A. O. U. W., an enthusiastic and devoted member, his bereaved wife a kind and affectionate husband and the community sustains the loss of a quiet and useful citizen.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him "who doeth all things well," remembering that we too must die, that our bounds are appointed beyond which we cannot pass.

Resolved, That we tender our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved ones of our lamented brother and exhort them to look for solace to Him who alone can bind up the broken heart and administer comfort in this sad hour of affliction and bereavement.

Resolved, That the lodge room be draped in mourning and the members wear the customary badge of sorrow for the next thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the lodge minutes, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and a copy furnished the county papers for publication.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Gorton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I am a healthy woman." Trial bottles free at St. Bernard's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

They Told Not, Neither do They Spin.

Our readers are well aware of the fact that many apostles of Labor have been sent unto us from abroad to enlighten our darkened minds and guide us in the narrow path of duty. One of these latter shining lights has added another star to his crown of glory by beating a poor widow out of his board bill. The second of these disciples leaves a grocer clad in mourning over an unpaid bill which, in his zeal to teach others, he has neglected to settle. The third has represented his State a number of years in a penal institution.

The fourth has a strong affinity for tanglefoot and can surround more cubic inches of that seductive fluid than any individual who has ever yet struck our town. Around which we give in our stance, on the fifth of these moral finger boards who also walks in ways that are devious. A few evening since, while sojourning in our city, and being regenerated "by the spirit and (a very little of) the water," he went skylining among some "soiled doves" and during his sojourn among those "whose steps take hold of hell" he became fascinated with a dazzling ring which glittered and glistened upon the digit of one of the demimourne and by some process of hocus pocus he clandestinely appropriated the same, and triumphantly bore it away unnoticed. But alas, when morning came the early Oriental rays revealed the astounding fact that the glistening jewel was the very commonest kind of an old brass ring and in point of value or beauty would hardly compare with one of those drawn in a popcorn lottery.

These and such as these are the ones who would faint instruct us in the way we should go, but all their ranting is "as sounding brass and tinkling cymbal;" our people prefer to mind their own business, obey the statute laws of Kentucky, follow the precepts of "King James' Bible" and risk the "King time religion" to take them safely through the eye of the needle.

Thousands Celebrate.

With thankfulness their restoration to health by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Think of the vast army who have been cured by this medicine.

Men women and children, who have suffered the consequences of impure blood, who have been the victims of scrofula sores, eruptions, dyspepsia, nervousness, sleeplessness.

They have tried other medicines and have failed to obtain relief. They tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did them good. They persevered in its use and it accomplished permanent cures. Do you wonder that they praise it and recommend it to you?

Burglary.

Monday night when honest people were indulging in that slumber peculiar to the just, thieves effected an entrance into the residence of Mike Long and secured $8.35 in change, a gold watch and a heavy gold ring belonging to Mr. Long. The money was obtained by prying off the cash drawers with a hatchet.

The watch and ring were taken from a dresser near Mr. Long's bed. The top drawer of a bureau in which Mr. Long had until lately kept a considerable amount of money was opened and closely ransacked. No other drawers were disturbed. Within a yard of the dresser and on a plain view was a cash box containing $450 part of which belonged to the Golden Cross and a large portion of the amount was gold and silver and had the thieves touched that box the jingle of the coins would have revealed its contents, but it escaped their greedy clutches and Mike is thanking his lucky stars and all other stellar orbits in the firmament for the happy oversight of the nocturnal sharks.

The window was gained through a rear window by tearing down the wire netting. The thieves were familiar with the premises and everything shows that they took their time and worked deliberately. They left by the front door, leaving the key upon the door sill. The cash drawers were carried to an alley some distance away where they were found early next morning by Squire Head who hastened at once to acquaint Mr. Long with his loss.

The family was aroused with difficulty and gave evidence of having been heavily drugged, and the fact of the entire family sleeping so late and being so hard to awaken shows conclusively that chloroform was used by the thieves.

OUR FRIENDS ABROAD.

Manufacturers and Wholesalers Merchants of Evansville, Hopkinsville and Henderson

Recognize the Interest of Our Own Business Men and People at Large in the Hopkins County Fair.

And Lend Their Substantial Endorsement to This Enterprise—The Only Fair in Several Counties.

The catalogues of the Great Hopkins County Fair are out, and they are beautiful, abounding in handsome advertisements of our home merchants and business men in all lines, who are both interested to promote the material growth and prosperity of this liberal and useful public enterprise, and who recognize in this fair catalogue a useful medium of advertisement, based on the great interest felt in its welfare by the people of Hopkins, Webster and adjoining counties.

And our friends over the river at Evansville, and those at Hopkinsville, and some at Henderson, whose interests are so closely interwoven with the business and merchant and citizen of this section, through decades of mutual relations in commercial affairs in this and other generations, have lent their substantial endorsement and approval this year to our only Hopkins County Fair.

That this reciprocal endorsement of our fair by the merchants and manufacturers of these places is appreciated by our people, who have known them in trade relations so long and so favorably, goes without question. But the names of these firms and men, our friends abroad, deserve special mention in this connection. Classified by their respective cities and businesses they are as follows:

EVANSVILLE.

Bement & Seitz Co., wholesale grocers; Strohm, Fisher & Co., wholesale stationery, etc.; C. Melzer & Co., soap manufacturers; Uhl Pottery Company, manufacturer stoneware, sewer pipe, etc.; Ragon Brothers, wholesale grocers; Fulton Avenue Brewing Company, beer; A. Bromm & Co., candy manufacturers and fancy grocers; H. Barnett, notions and furnishing goods; Leich & Co., wholesale druggists; Orr, Grille & Co., iron, steel, wagon and carriage woodwork, etc.; Conrad Haase, furniture factory, mattresses, etc.; Morgan Babcock, seeds, produce and provisions; Parsons & Seville, wholesale grocers; Acme Hotel, a leading hostelry; William Pelz, boiler-maker; Hinkle, Barbour & Co., manufacturers and wholesalers of shoes; Felt Furniture Company, manufacturers and dealers in furniture, etc.

HOPKINSVILLE.

Crescent Milling Co., flour, bran, etc.; Hopkinsville Tobacco Manufacturing Co., chewing and smoking tobacco; Ragsdale, Cooper & Co., Main street tobacco warehouse; Forbes & Brother, Mogul Wagons, building material, etc.; Acme Mills Co., flouring mills.

HENDERSON.

Henderson Brewing Co., beer. This will be the Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Hopkins County Fair Company. The Fair last year was a notable success and the promise for the coming meetings are even more flattering, as is evidenced by the increased interest manifested by business men at home and abroad.

Get a catalogue and search the premium list to find what you can contribute to the display out of your possessions, your growth or your handiwork. And do not forget to read the advertisements of those who are the public spirited friends of this useful public enterprise at home and abroad.

Let everybody help to make the Hopkins County Fair bigger and better this year and every year. The dates are August 24, 25, 26, and 27.

An Explanation.

The reason for the great popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla lies in the fact that this medicine positively cures. It is America's Greatest Medicine, and the American people have an abiding confidence in its merits. They buy and take it for simple as well as serious ailments, confident that it will do them good.

Whilst sojourning in the Rose Creek country, the hostess editor obtained from Mrs. Renie Barnes a nice collection of Indian utensils in a remarkably well preserved state. They consisted of two stone tools used in digging the earth and several implements used in dressing skins. The latter were highly polished and were whetted to a sharp uniform edge, and gave evidence of long continued use. They are highly appreciated and will be placed in the museum of Indian relics here. He would also return his thanks to A. F. Toombs and D. W. Roland for rare curiosities in the way of two artistically carved walking-sticks which elicited universal admiration and will also take a prominent place among the curiosities.

They Fit a Fout.

Last Saturday evening, Mander-son Oldham and Harvey Rich mounted the "anxious seat" before Judge Cowell to admit or deny a charge of un-Chesterfield deportment. A well selected jury was delegated to take charge of the fluctuating beam of justice. Hon. C. J. Pratt appeared to defend the Rich man and that legal giant, the Hon. Jerrald Jonsen proudly championed the cause of the other penitent.

From the evidence adduced it seems that some time since in a business transaction between them there was a small balance in favor of Oldham, who, on or about the Glorious Fourth approached said Rich and asked a settlement. Considerable talk ensued during which it seems that Oldham lost sight of that Scripture which warns us "Lay hands suddenly upon no man" and inserted his digits in Mr. Rich's collar in such precipitate haste that the gentleman's necktie was greatly deranged thereby. This unsolicited liberty was also accompanied by a violent vibratory motion that caused the aforesaid party's teeth to chatter like a pair of castanets or an old-time nigger performing a "bone solo." Having emptied his "vials of wrath" in this manner, Mr. Oldham laid his grip and meandered toward his shop.

Just at this juncture, Mr. Rich concluded that "one good turn deserves another," and picking up a stray base ball bat, he caressed the top of Mr. Oldham's head with the same in a manner far more impressive than gentle. The first tap attracted Oldham's attention and instantly he found that Mr. Rich appeared to be consuming an undue amount of atmosphere and to counteract this seeming wastefulness, he closed his fingers tightly over Mr. Rich's Adam's apple and greatly abridged his respiration. Just here diplomatic friends interposed and passed the succession act.

They Fit a Fout.

Last Saturday evening, Mander-son Oldham and Harvey Rich mounted the "anxious seat" before Judge Cowell to admit or deny a charge of un-Chesterfield deportment. A well selected jury was delegated to take charge of the fluctuating beam of justice. Hon. C. J. Pratt appeared to defend the Rich man and that legal giant, the Hon. Jerrald Jonsen proudly championed the cause of the other penitent.

From the evidence adduced it seems that some time since in a business transaction between them there was a small balance in favor of Oldham, who, on or about the Glorious Fourth approached said Rich and asked a settlement. Considerable talk ensued during which it seems that Oldham lost sight of that Scripture which warns us "Lay hands suddenly upon no man" and inserted his digits in Mr. Rich's collar in such precipitate haste that the gentleman's necktie was greatly deranged thereby. This unsolicited liberty was also accompanied by a violent vibratory motion that caused the aforesaid party's teeth to chatter like a pair of castanets or an old-time nigger performing a "bone solo." Having emptied his "vials of wrath" in this manner, Mr. Oldham laid his grip and meandered toward his shop.

Just at this juncture, Mr. Rich concluded that "one good turn deserves another," and picking up a stray base ball bat, he caressed the top of Mr. Oldham's head with the same in a manner far more impressive than gentle. The first tap attracted Oldham's attention and instantly he found that Mr. Rich appeared to be consuming an undue amount of atmosphere and to counteract this seeming wastefulness, he closed his fingers tightly over Mr. Rich's Adam's apple and greatly abridged his respiration. Just here diplomatic friends interposed and passed the succession act.

Upon these facts the witnesses agreed in substance. After a little cross-firing each eagle of the law soared off swiftly into the uppermost regions of legal space, of alighted safely in the presence of the astounded jury, who, after a short period of convalescence, proceeded to dish out an adequate dose of justice to the erring ones.

They failed to find in the statute any law which would warrant Mr. Oldham in flirting with Mr. Rich's necktie, or restricting that gentleman's atmospheric resources, and asked Mr. Oldham to "bring forth fruits meet for repentance" about the size of one cent and the cost.

And to discourage the reprehensible habit peculiar to Mr. Rich of carrying his fellowman with a club, sledge hammer or other trivial object, the august body required him to leave a similar amount as an evidence of good faith, and with a few words of benediction the tangled meshes of the law relaxed, and the implicated parties once more entered the walks of men.

E. W. Turner Lodge, No. 548, F. & A. M.

WHEREAS, it hath pleased our heavenly Father to take from our midst our much loved brother, S. E. Stevens; therefore, be it Resolved 1st, That, in the death of Bro. Stevens, this lodge has lost a valued member, the community a useful citizen and his wife a devoted husband.

Resolved 2nd, That, while we deplore his loss, we humbly bow in submission to the will of Almighty God and pray His richest blessings to rest upon her who was "of his life a part," and upon us who remain to emulate his virtues.

Resolved 3d, That the Charter of E. W. Turner Lodge No. 548, be mourning worn for thirty days.

Resolved 4th, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and that copies be sent to his wife and the Earlington Bee.

The Grim Reaper.

Died, on the 11th inst., near Frostburg in this county, Mrs. Lena Cardwell, wife of Jack Cardwell, after a painful illness of six months. Deceased was thirty-six years of age and leaves a husband and one child and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and bore her long suffering with true Christian fortitude, was perfectly reconciled to the will of the Master and died in the hope of a glorious immortality. The Bee extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Three Boys and a Gal.

The way youngsters have been adventuring the past week almost compels us to get out a Baby Extra but in a very condensed form we will mention the following radiant homes:

F. B. Arnold and wife rejoice over an infant boy, born Tuesday. Perry Vincent and better-half are all smiles over a little son that appeared on the scene Monday. Vernon Baldwin and his helpmeet are glowing over a son who entered this world of trouble Sunday. William Hainsbrough and his good wife are elated over the arrival of a girl last Friday. The Bee extends its congratulations and would remark incidentally that the war with Spain is not affecting the infant industry of America to any visible extent.

Mend Your Clothes.

I will visit Earlington Wednesday of each week for the purpose of getting any work that is to be done in my line.

Satisfaction guaranteed and my prices will be reasonable. Will also do cleaning, coloring and repairing.

DEDICATION.

General Baptist Church, Earlington, Next Sunday.

The General Baptist Church at this place will be formally dedicated next Sunday.

Rev. Josephus Lee, of Oakland City, Ind., who has been conducting a series of meetings at that church last week and this will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Evangelist Lee has preached daily to large audiences and the services will probably draw a multitude.

Memorial Service.

The church service on last Sunday at the M. E. church was in memory of deceased members of Victoria Lodge, No. 84, Knights of Pythias. Since organization in 1897, seven members have died. Bros. B. F. Stens, C. C. McGary, F. R. Stevens, John Dodge, Courtland Slack, George Geiger and T. D. Walker.

Sir Knight C. C. Hall, Chancellor Commander of the lodge, found an attentive audience assembled to hear his earnest words. Miss Ethel Evans, at the organ, assisted by a number of singers, rendered sweet music.

The lesson was from 1 Cor. 13 chap.; the text Prov. 17, chap. 17 verse: "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity."

The first point in the sermon dwelt upon the fact that no greater tribute to the memory of departed brothers could be offered than to speak of the virtues of the order in which they had been partners.

The speaker dwelt upon the Friendship, the bond of union, Charity the great principle of our order and Benevolence the fruit of friendship and charity. The second point of the discourse gave a beautiful description of the order as founded, the love between Damon and Pythias.

The third point beautifully brought out was the sustaining power of the Order, Charity, with out which we are as nothing. In strong words the portrayal of the one life altogether lovely was made. The life of our Lord in all its sweetness and beauty, was made the typical and purely charitable living we should think of and follow as far as we are able.

The sustaining power of the lessons of the Bible, the gifts coming to us in so many ways from the all-wise Father were dwelt upon in a noble and inspiring way.

An earnest appeal to stand always for the good, to take the right side, to dare to do it because it was the very true thing and following the example of the meek and lowly One, who, being followed, would lead us to be friendly, charitable and benevolent, closed a teaching at once interesting and touching.

Earnest supplications were made by Revs. Josephus Lee and Bro. C. C. Hall. Those who attended the service felt fully repaid for their attendance. The members of the Lodge felt under deep obligations to our Chancellor Commander for his efforts in behalf of a tribute which should annually be paid to those gone beyond and in recognition of the organization we all honor.

Resolutions of Respect, Earlington Commandery No. 525, U. O. G. C.

WHEREAS, it has pleased the Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to pluck from our midst by sudden death, our beloved brother, S. E. Stevens, therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Stevens, the U. O. G. C. has lost a most faithful member, the wife a devoted husband and the community a good citizen.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved wife and relatives our heartfelt sympathy and pray the blessings of God upon her in her bereavement and his watch-care over her in the future.

Resolved, That in recognition of his many virtues as a Christian and fraternal brother that this Commandery observe the usual rules of mourning in memory of him.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record book, a copy presented to county papers for publication and a copy of same given to the wife and relatives.
